HAPPY NEW YEAR!

We hope your Holiday season was filled with joy, peace, and happiness. Wegner Buchanan wishes you a Happy New Year. We hope 2010 brings you joy, peace, prosperity, and many, many blessings. Each new year offers new and exciting opportunities and challenges. Every year we look for new ways to improve our practice and better serve our clients. We look forward to 2010 and continuing to help families through challenging times.

We are always looking for ways to stay in touch with our current and former clients and friends. With this in mind, we will be sending out newsletters quarterly that will have information we think is interesting, useful, or both. Some newsletters will contain information that may be relevant to your former, current, or future circumstances, while other newsletters will include stories and antidotes we find amusing. If there is a legal topic you are interested in, let us know and we will consider it for a future newsletter.

We are always interested in hearing from you. Feel free to send us a note or give us a call to let us know how you and your family are doing. And, as always, please contact us if you, a family member, or friend need any legal assistance.

MODIFICATIONS

After a dissolution, you may be entitled to modify your Judgment. Modifications may be warranted when a "substantial and continuing" change in circumstances occurs.

This change may result from of a change in a physical custody plan or a change in work schedule for one or both parents. The change may also be monetary in nature. For example, with the recent economy, there may be a drastic reduction in income for one or both parents, creating a substantial and continuing change in circumstances. Any of these, or other changes, may entitle a party to a modification.

If you think you may be entitled to modify a previous Judgment with respect to custody, support, or maintenance, contact us to discuss your situation. We would be happy to meet with you free of charge. Please bring your Judgment and information regarding your change in circumstances. For more information regarding modifications, you can also visit the Divorce Guide on our website: www.lawyerstl.com.
